

David Castle, Aquatic Supervisor – City of Henderson

Dave Castle is an Aquatic Supervisor for City of Henderson Parks and Recreation in Henderson, NV. He has been in the Parks and Recreation field for over 23 years. He began his career in recreation as a Recreation Assistant at age 16 at Silver Springs Recreation Center and then worked his way up in Kids Zone day camp, facility operations and senior citizen programming.

Dave earned his Bachelor of Science Degree in Recreation from the University of Nevada-Las Vegas. After college, he became the Recreation Director for The Palms at Siena Assisted Living & Memory Care. He then worked for Clark County Parks and Recreation for 10 years as a Recreation/Cultural Specialist at the West Flamingo Senior Center and Aquatics section. In 2016, Dave rejoined City of Henderson as an Aquatic Supervisor and is happy to be back where he started.

Dave has been heavily involved with Nevada Recreation and Parks Society for the last 12 years serving as a Member at Large and overseeing various committees. He was also one of the first graduates of the L.E.A.D. program. Dave loves fishing, camping, hiking, watching and playing sports, and is an avid ghost hunter. He has been married to Denise Castle for 12 years and they have two kids, Madison and Bryson.
