

William John Wynn II, Behavior Inclusion Specialist – City of Reno

William has worked with individuals with mental and physical disabilities for the last 7 years and was looking to take his expertise to help with program development, training and planning and saw there was an opportunity to do so within Park and Recreation division in the City of Reno.

Mr. Wynn has conducted trainings for private and public entities including the 2019 NPRS Conference. He also has WIN Worker Certification, Suicide De-escalation Certification, Registered Behavior Technician Certification.

In his free time, William loves spending time with family, cooking, traveling, and making music! He recently released a music album on listening platforms (William Wynn “Faithful Soul”) and is am one of the youngest Pastors in Reno, Nevada.

Some fun facts he would like to include:

“My grandfather, Willie J. Wynn, was the first African American on the Governors Cabinet under Paul Laxalt and my Father Dr. John Wynn founded the first African American Clergy Council in Reno, NV and stated a program called the Y.E.S. Program (Youth Empowered to Succeed) which helped the Washoe County School District graduate High School Senior who were failing and would have otherwise been held back.”
